A crucial bill to provide constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes was passed unanimously by the Lok Sabha on Thursday with over two-third majority.

The House passed the Constitution (123rd Amendment) Bill 2017, superseding the amendments by the Rajya Sabha, with all 406 present voting in favour after an almost five-hour debate in which 32 members participated. The passage of this major legislation comes ahead of the general election due early next year, reports PTI.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who was present during the voting, congratulated Social Justice and Empowerment Minister Thaawarchand Gehlot for successfully piloting the bill.

During the debate on the Constitution (123rd Amendment) Bill 2017, several members demanded a census to ascertain the population of other backward classes (OBCs) while some others pressed for making public the socio-economic survey of 2014.

Over two-thirds majority voted in favour of the bill, which is a necessity for amending the Constitution. The amendments moved by BJD's Bhratruhari Mahtab were however rejected by 302 voting against it and 84 in favour.

The bill provides for granting of constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes (NCBC) on par with the National Commission for Scheduled Castes and the National Commission for Scheduled Tribes.

Gurugram: Muslim man forced to shave beard, three arrested

AGENCIES Gurugram

Three people were arrested on Thursday after a Muslim man was allegedly forced to shave his beard and thrashed following an altercation in Gurugram's Sector 29.

An FIR was registered against the accused after the victim, Yunus filed a complaint in this regard.

Deputy Commissioner of Po-(DCP) Gurugram (Crime) Sumit Kuhar said, "Three persons including the barber have been arrested by the police on the incident that happened on July 31. This is an isolated incident and no organization is involved in it.'

This has come at a time when many political parties

Speaking on the incident, are cornering the Centre over rampant incidents of mob lynching, alleging that atrocities against the Muslim community are on a rise across the country.

In a recent incident, a 28year-old Muslim man named Rakbar Khan was beaten to death by an agitated mob in Rajasthan's Alwar district on suspicion of cow smuggling.

Does a government exist in State: Court

The officers have been completely inept and insensitive in handling such sensitive cases. What is the point of the highest court in the state monitoring the case when the results are still unsatisfactory," Justice Dharmadhikari said.

The judges, while labelling the reports as 'rudimentary,' further said that despite the involvement of higher officials of the CBI and the SIT, they had only managed to compile summaries of all the progress reports submitted by the agencies, so far.

Meanwhile, the agencies have sought an adjournment for two months to place on record the steps they propose to undertake for achieving further progress in the case.

The bench, however, refused to allow the prayer to adjourn the hearing for two months and instead posted the matter for further hearing on September 3.

'Pregnant' woman gang raped by 'ex' and seven friends

He later informed that the woman, who had returned to her own house in Satara, has now accepted that she will undergo the requisite medical test. "We have sent our team comprising of women police officers to her house and a medical test will now be conducted there," the officer said. The woman, however, has a very different story to tell. According to her FIR, she along with her husband, who runs a hotel, had been to Tasgaon to hire a couple for their business. There, one of the accused - Mukund - called her husband and asked him to come to Turchi Phata.
