Names of Prabhu, Gadkari for def min doing rounds

Patel is a seasoned Madhya Pradesh leader and Lok Sabha member. Joshi, Karandlaje and Angadi are Lok Sabha MPs from poll-bound Karnataka. Singh and Verma are MPs from Baghpat in UP and West Delhi and come from politically influential Jat community. Thakur is son of former Himachal Pradesh chief minister Prem Kumar Dhumal and an MP from the state.

Sarma, a leader from Assam who has played a key role in BJP's expansion in the northeast, is presently not a member of Parliament. Girri represents East Delhi in the Lok Sabha while Choubey is an MP from Bihar. A party leader said the Prime Minister may spring a surprise with his choice of new faces and ministers in key portfolio like defence.

While carrying out the reshuffle, Modi is also likely to keep an eye on upcoming state elections in Himachal Pradesh, Gujarat and Karnataka and his party's re-election bid in 2019. Union ministers — Kalraj Mishra, Bandaru Dattatreya, Rajiv Pratap Rudy, Sanjiv Kumar Balyan, Faggan Singh Kulaste and Mahendra Nath Pandey — had resigned on Friday ahead of the reshuffle. Uma Bharti, too, had offered to resign but her fate remains in a balance amid speculation that there may be a few more exits.

Sources said railway minister Suresh Prabhu may be moved to another ministry

Internal troubles in the AIADMK, which has been hit by a rebellion led by T T V Dhinakaran, can prove to be a stumbling block in its joining the government. AIADMK leader Thambidurai, who met Shah on Friday, might be a likely representative from the party along with P Venugopal and V Maitreyan if it decides to join the government. However, the southern party has not said anything so far.

Shiv Sena, the BJP ally in Maharashtra, has also spoken on similar lines with its chief Uddhav Thackeray saying he has received no information from the BJP. "I have got news about the Cabinet expansion only from media. I have not enquired about it (from the central BJP leadership). I have neither received any communication from anybody nor are we hungry for power," Thackeray told reporters in Mumbai.

After assuming office in May 2014, Modi expanded his council of ministers twice — first on November 9, 2014 and then on July 5, 2016.

"A process has been set in motion for the swearing-in ceremony at Rashtrapati Bhavan at around 10 am on Sunday," a top government official had said on Friday. Shah had met Modi on Friday and the two leaders are understood to have finalized the changes in the council of ministers.

Road transport and highways minister Gadkari, seen as one of the more capable ministers, can be given more responsibility. Railway minister Prabhu, who had taken moral responsibility for a string of train accidents and indicated his willingness to resign, may be moved to another key ministry, party sources said.

Other incumbents, including steel minister Birender Singh, may be moved to other ministries. Power minister Piyush Goyal, petroleum minister Dharmendra Pradhan and telecom minister Manoj Sinha are seen among the "good performers" in the government, a party leader said, adding that some of them can be elevated.

The resignation of Manohar Parrikar and M Venkaiah Naidu from the Union Cabinet and the demise of Anil Dave had created three vacancies in the cabinet.

Militant with hand in Umar Fayaz killing gunned down

Srinagar: A Lashkar-e-Toiba (LeT) militant, involved in the killing of Lt Umar Fayaz in May, was on Saturday gunned down in an encounter with security forces in Kulgam district of south Kashmir, a police official said.

A joint team of the police and Army laid a trap for Ishfaq Ahmad Padder in Tantray Pora village. The militant was shot dead after he opened fire while trying to escape, the spokesman said.

The spokesman said Padder was involved in the brutal killing of 22-year-old Lt Fayaz in Shopian. The newly-commissioned officer was abducted and killed by LeT militants in May, when he was attending a wedding of a relative.

Padder was also involved in robberies at the J-K Bank and Ellaquai Dehati Bank, besides a firing incident at the Yaripora police station, he said. One AK-47 rifle, two magazines, 42 rounds and a pouch was seized from the slain militant. PTI

Centre waives late fee on delayed filing of GST returns

New Delhi: The government has waived late payment fees for delayed filing of GST returns and allowed businesses to correct errors in the initial form while submitting final returns by September 5.

Businesses were required to file the maiden Goods and Services Tax (GST) returns for July and pay taxes by August 25 by filing GSTR 3B. The final returns for sales for July are to be filed by September 5 and returns for purchases by September 10.

In a circular, the finance ministry said late fee for all taxpayers who could not file GSTR 3B for July has been waived, but not the interest on late payment of dues.

Govt monitoring GST implementation: Minister

New Delhi: The government is monitoring implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) regularly and teething issues are being resolved immediately, minister of state for finance Arjun Ram Meghwal said on Saturday. Some technical issues with regard to tax payment have come to light and GST Network was directed to resolve them, he added. According to the minister, a team of 180 officials and 30 ministers is on the job. PTI

As per the CGST and SGST Acts, an interest at the rate of 18 per cent will be levied for delayed payment of tax. "Since the payment was not made on or before the due date, the registered person shall be liable for payment of interest on delayed payment of tax starting from August 26, till the date of debit in the electronic cash and/or credit ledger, but will not be liable to pay late fee," the CBEC said.

The GST law provided for a nominal fee of Rs 100 per day on Central GST and an equivalent amount on State GST in case of late filing of returns and payment of taxes. The Central Board of Excise and Customs (CBEC) also provided for correction of erroneous details furnished in form GSTR-3B. PTI

Rlys to rename trains after famous literary works

New Delhi: Adding an erudite touch to train journeys, the railways ministry is looking at a proposal to rename trains after famous literary works, referencing not just their authors but the region they come from.

Passengers travelling to West Bengal could soon board a train named after a novel by Mahashweta Devi and a train ride to Bihar could reference a work by Ramdhari Singh Dinkar, said a senior official.

The ministry, he said, was creating a bank of award winning literary works from across the country to christen trains across railway zones. "The idea came from Union minister Suresh Prabhu who said the railways is a secular integrating factor and the names of the trains can be used to showcase varied cultural identities. So we will name trains on the works of the authors across languages and across regions," said the official.

Officials working on the database said preliminary work has already begun with a list of Sahitya Academy winning works being shortlisted. "The minister feels that in India there are regional aspirations and regional affiliations that generate a lot of interest. It is an innovative way to commemorate these achievements," said the official. The decision to rename and name trains lies with the ministry. However, it needs to take permission for renaming stations.

Some trains already had that literary touch. The Godan Express, for instance, which runs from Mumbai to UP is named after Munshi Premchand's acclaimed work. There is also Kaifiyat Express, named after Urdu poet Kaifi Azmi, which goes from his home town Azamgarh in UP to Delhi. PTI

INNOVATIVE IDEA

- ➤ Decision to rename and name trains lies with the ministry
- ➤ Trains will be named after the works of the authors across languages and regions
- ➤ Preliminary work has already begun with the list of Sahitya Academy winning works being shortlisted
- ➤ Train to West Bengal could be named after a novel by Mahashweta Devi
- ➤ Train ride to Bihar could refer to a work by Ramdhari Singh Dinkar
- ➤ Several trains, stations, rail circuits and schemes were changed by the NDA government

Gorkha agitation continues; cops launch hunt for Gurung

Darjeeling: A massive search operation was launched on Saturday in Darjeeling hills and adjoining areas for GJM supremo Bimal Gurung, even as the indefinite shutdown entered its 80th day.

The police had on Friday issued a lookout notice against the GJM chief for his alleged involvement in various cases, including a bomb blast in Kalimpong police station in which a civic volunteer was killed.

The bandh continued after Gurung revoked party convenor Binay Tamang's decision of suspending it till September 12, when the next round of dialogue with the state government is scheduled.

The GJM chief had also expelled Tamang on the charge of "violating the party line and indulging in anti-party activities". Tamang on Saturday lashed out at Gurung and party general secretary Roshan Giri. "I do not need to take lessons from them. I am a son of the soil and am fighting for the interests of my Gorkha brothers. I want to ask Gurung and Giri, if they are so concerned about fighting for Gorkhaland, why did they send their families abroad so that they can be safe?" he asked.

Meanwhile, chairman of Kurseong municipality, Krishna Limbu was arrested on Saturday for his alleged involvement in arson and violence in the hills in June this year. PTI

President should intervene in TN: Dhinakaran

Puducherry: Sidelined AIADMK leader T T V Dhinakaran on Saturday demanded that the President intervene in Tamil Nadu as an "extraordinary situation" is prevailing in the state. Dhinakaran, who is involved in a power tussle with chief minister K Palaniswami, met the MLAs loyal to him who have been staying here for nearly two weeks.

After the meeting, he said the legislators had not been herded and asserted that they were staying here on their own volition. Dhinakaran told reporters that an "extraordinary situation" was prevailing in Tamil Nadu.

"President Ram Nath Kovind and the governor should intervene in this extraordinary situation. We will wait for two more days and then decide next course of action," the party's deputy general secretary said.

He had come here to hold discussions with his camp legislators, he added.

The DMK, Congress and Left parties had met Kovind on August 31, demanding a floor test for the incumbent Palaniswami government in the Tamil Nadu assembly. They had earlier knocked on Rao's doors with a similar plea. PTI
